

Michael Bonomi, B.Com, LL.B

As part of the Employment Law Group, Mike's practice is focused entirely on employment and labour law matters. He represents employers and employees in dealing with a broad range of human resource issues. In providing employment and labour law counsel Mike seeks to assist his clients in achieving sensible and effective solutions to workplace problems. His practice necessitates attendance before various courts and administrative tribunals. He has been counsel in several noteworthy employment cases. Mike is a frequent guest speaker at conferences and seminars. He has authored numerous papers and articles relative to employment and labour law matters. He balances his busy practice with extensive involvement in minor sports in the community.

Areas of Law

Employment and Labour Law

Education

Admitted to the Ontario Bar (1987)

Honours B.A., University of Western Ontario (King's College)(1982)

LL.B, University of Western Ontario (Faculty of Law)(1985)

Associations

Member, Law Society of Upper Canada

Member, Ontario Bar Association (Canadian Bar Association)

Member, Lincoln County Law Association