

Joseph M. Gottli, B.Sc., M.B.A., LL.B., C.S.
Partner
Chair – Litigation Group

Joseph practices construction and corporate-commercial law, with emphasis on litigation and resolution of business and shareholder disputes, security enforcement, contractual rights and remedies, construction liens and bond/surety claims. He has appeared in all courts in Ontario, and also advocates and represents clients in mediation and arbitration. He provides timely, effective advice and service to individual, corporate and institutional clients, including owners, project lenders, contractors, trades and suppliers. Regularly, Joseph also freely counsels other lawyers on construction law issues.

Areas of Law

Civil Litigation/Advocacy
Construction
Business/Corporate-Commercial
Mediation & Arbitration
Wills & Estates

Education

LSUC Certified Specialist (Construction Law) – 2000
Admitted to The Law Society of Upper Canada/Ontario Bar – 1982
University of Manitoba - LL.B.(1980), M.B.A.(1979), B.Sc.(1974)

Associations & Professional Activities

Member - Canadian Bar Association
Member – Ontario Bar Association: Business Law Section; Construction Law Section;
Alternate Dispute Resolution (ADR) Section
Member – ADR Institute of Ontario
Member and Past President – Niagara Construction Association
Past Executive – OBA Construction Law Section
Founding and former Member – Construction Law Specialty Committee, LSUC
Member – Lincoln County (Niagara) Law Association
Director – St. Catharines Golf & Country Club