

Woodward B. McKaig, B.A. LL.B

Woody has practised in St. Catharines since his call to the Bar in 1976. He has extensive experience in civil litigation, and in the prosecution of criminal and drug offences. He represents the Niagara Police Services Board and its Police Service, and provides strategic advice to both in respect of labour, administrative, discipline, Collective Agreement negotiations and general policing matters. He represented the former Haldimand-Norfolk Region in the disbandment of its Police Service, and has negotiated OPP Policing Contracts for the former Region, and more recently for Haldimand County. He represented the Haldimand-Norfolk Transition Board on its labour and employment issues in the context of its municipal restructuring. He now represents Haldimand County and provides ongoing general advice to the County on First Nations, labour relations and other municipal issues. He is Counsel to other private and public sector clients, negotiates Collective Agreements, conducts labour arbitrations and provides ongoing advice on labour and employment issues. When not practicing law, Woody is an avid golfer who competes in Senior Amateur tournaments throughout Southwestern Ontario.
