

Victor F. Muratori, LL.B., Q.C.

Victor F. Muratori Q.C. – Victor joined Sullivan Mahoney LLP in 1967 immediately after his call to the Bar. In those early days, Victor practiced both corporate commercial law, commercial litigation and land use law. Eventually Victor refined his practice to primarily commercial transactions involving the purchase and sale of business enterprises. This emphasis included advising individuals and companies on large scale real property developments. In addition, he has worked both as a lawyer and as a business advisor in the wine industry from the early days of the rebirth of that industry. Victor has been on the board of directors of some of Canada's largest and most prominent wineries including a term as Chairman of Inniskillin Wines Executive Committee. Victor has served on the board of several not-for-profit organizations and charitable foundations such as Niagara Community Foundation, Leonard B. Herzog Foundation (both as director and president), as a member of the Diocesan Finance Council of the Diocese of St. Catharines and as governor of Shaw Festival Theatre. Victor was made a Queen's Counsel in 1978.
